DISSOLUTION
NOT ORDERED.Distribution of Standard Oil
Stock, Only, Required.Court Decree Misunderstood, Says Trust Counsel.More "Theoretical Victory" Is Prosecutor's Opinion.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Mortimer T. Elliott, general counsel for the Standard Oil Company, said today in commenting for the first time on the decision against the company handed down yesterday by the United States Circuit Court at St. Paul:

"I have seen what purports to be the text of the decree handed down by the United States Circuit Court yesterday."

"The company will take an appeal immediately to the United States Supreme Court and will cheerfully abide by the verdict of the highest court in the land, whatever that may be. Arguments in this case began last April, and we are glad to have reached an opinion. I do not mean we are pleased with the opinion itself, but we are glad to get it, whatever its nature."

"The decree does not order a dissolution of the Standard Oil Company; that is a mistake. What the decree orders, as I now understand it, is that the company shall distribute among its stockholders, of which there are approximately 5000, its holdings in stock of subsidiary companies. This distribution, I further understand, is ordered to be effected on a pro rata basis of apportionment. That is to say, the heaviest holders of Standard Oil stock would receive a proportionately larger number of shares in the stock of subsidiary companies."

"NO PRACTICAL EFFECT."
Henry Wellman, who represented the Attorney-General of Missouri in that State's suit against the Standard Oil Company and conducted the examination in New York of the officers of the company, takes a view similar to that expressed by Mr. Elliott. He sums up the situation as "theoretical victory."

"I cannot see," he said, "that any practical effect is to be expected. It seems as if the best the government can do is to order the sale of the property and, in that case, the money, of course, goes to the principal stockholders in some form or another. There is no confiscation, no punishment, as there would be in the case of criminal proceedings, with the imposition of a fine."

"The case is similar to that of the coal roads, which were forced to separate from their coal business; and it is difficult to see, even if the decision is upheld by the Supreme Court, how the government can prevent the control of the Standard Oil properties remaining in the hands of the same men if it is split up into its constituent properties."

"This has been the case in every suit in which the law compels the dissolution of corporations. They have simply been put into different shape, and have gone along more compactly than ever."

OFFICIAL EXONERATED.

Secretary of T.P.A. Will Continue With Association—Dead Clerk Guilty
of Theft.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Louis Labaume, who resigned as secretary and treasurer of the Travelers Protective Association, following the discovery that a shortage in the funds of the order would reach more than $25,000, and might go up to $50,000, will remain with the association. It is said he will be in charge of the claims department. The auditing of the books still continues. Labaume said the shortage was now $27,400.

The speculations are attributed to William E. Henschel, chief clerk and confidential bookkeeper, who recently committed suicide on the grave of his wife when the shortage was about to become known.

Members of the association will not be surprised if the shortage shall be found to be $50,000. Auditors have not yet made their full report. Estimates, given out reluctantly by officials, have slowly increased.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After a search of more than five months for his father, William A. Balaster, a survivor of the Confederate army, Harry Balaster was led by a dream to the medical department of Tulane University today to be confronted with the disemboweled body of his parent on the dissecting table. Balaster gathered the portions together and the funeral took place from the home.

Development showed that the old man had been committed to the House of Detention on a charge of insanity and removed from there to the Charity Hospital. The hospital authorities followed the usual custom and sent the unclaimed body to the medical college.

Artist Christy Declares Wife's Relatives, Not Drink, Is Cause of His Troubles.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Howard Chandler Christy, famous artist and illustrator, who is feeling from his wife and their home near Zanesville, O., passed through Cincinnati today. While here Mr. Christy gave out an interview in which he said it was his wife's family and not drink that caused his troubles. Of course there were other causes, too. He wanted to be out in the country, while she wanted to be in the city, he said.

"So it was," he said, "that was part of it. Her family wanted to run my family. I could not have this and took out the girl to my people in Zanesville. Now we are going South and I expect to be in Cuba before another fortnight."

ALEXANDRIA, La., Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Aaron Johnson, a negro who is said to be 115 years old, fell out of a wagon and broke his neck as he was being conveyed to the Rapides Parish poor farm at Pineville. He was being assisted from the wagon when the horses started off and the old man tumbled out, landing on his head. He had been on the plantation of Dr. Phillips at Glenmora for the past twenty-five years.

THE EMBARGO.GERMANY IS SEEKING BENEFITS
UNDER TARIFF.Suggested by Commercial Body
That Restrictions Against American
Beef Should Be Moderated in Return
for Favors Under New Tariff Law—Quarantine Is an Obstacle.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—The treatment of American meats by Germany and the probability of modification in forthcoming negotiations for a trade arrangement between the two countries, is much discussed in German newspapers.

The bulletin of the Commercial Treaty Association, which is opposed to the high protective policy of the government, expresses the opinion that some of the restrictions placed upon American meats are unnecessary from a purely sanitary standpoint, and might well be modified in exchange for certain advantages under the American tariff law. The association, however, rejects the claim that American animals and meats are subject to exceptional treatment at the hands of the German government.

The prohibition against the importation of American beef cattle was issued in 1893 because of the discovery in two cargoes shipped to Hamburg were discovered to be affected with the disease known as "mad cow" disease, which is carried by live cattle from Australia, Russia, Rumania, Italy and some other countries, is also prohibited, but for other reasons.

It is remarked, furthermore, that even if the prohibition of imports from the United States were abrogated, it would still be impossible to bring American cattle into Germany, because they, in common with cattle from other overseas countries, would be subject to a quarantine detention and observation of four weeks, and would not be put through the tuberculin test.

Armed Men Keep Too Close Watch in Cemetery Over Magnate's Grave.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FAIR HAVEN, Mass., Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Night and day during the five months since the body of Henry H. Rogers, the Standard Oil magnate, was buried in the costly granite tomb in Riverside Cemetery, a trio of guards, armed with guns, revolvers and clubs have been seen patrolling the open space around the tomb.

The guards believe that attempts have been planned to take the body away. They have been ordered to permit no one, no matter who they might pretend to be, to approach the tomb. The three men who have been on watch have literally obeyed the commands that it is said that Rogers' family has made to the family by friends of the late Mr. Rogers, who traveled hundreds of miles to pay their respects to his memory.

GUILTY OF MURDER.

Jury So Finds Dr. Haldane Clemenson,
Charged With Chloroforming
His Wife.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Dr. Haldane Clemenson, who has been on trial for the murder of his wife, Nora Jane Clemenson, was found guilty of murder, and sentenced to life imprisonment last night. It took the jury more than three hours to reach a verdict.

Clemenson was charged with the murder of his wife on May 30. Mrs. Clemenson was found dead in bed, with a sword of chloroform in her hand. Clemenson said he had been unconscious for several hours, and when he recovered he had found his wife dead by his side. He told a story about burglars entering the house, and said that $50 and some jewelry had been taken.

Clemenson later admitted that his story of the burglary was false, and he is reported to have said that he had

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The receipt of a number of letters from Barcelona, Spain, by members of various stock exchanges, threatening the lives of eight American financiers who are interested in the tobacco business, has been reported to Chief Postoffice Inspector Stuart of the Chicago district.

Frederick D. Countess of the Chicago Stock Exchange, has received three of these letters. The last one, which arrived today reads:

"Some of the redeemers hereinafter pointed out with their crooked finance: James B. Duke, John C. Cobb, C. C. Dula, George Arens, August Belmont, Thomas F. Ryan, Pierre Lorillard, John W. Gates, of the Tobacco Trust, of New York, United States of America, have done much to ruin the world after a very long and pernicious illness of acute crookedness. You are hereby invited with your assistance to their funeral that will take place at once in the London and New York Stock Exchange."

"For their comrades and supporters the toughest ever mark they ever met."

"We think the letters are sent by anarchists, while others believe they are from a dissatisfied faction of tobacco growers in Cuba. The letters are sent by an agent of the Anti-Equity Tobacco Growers of Kentucky. An investigation will be made."

Illinois Suffragists After Political Life
of Opponents of Women's Suffrage Bill.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Retirement from public life of every State Senator who opposed the equal suffrage bill at Springfield during the recent session of the General Assembly was demanded yesterday by the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association, in convention at the Chicago Women's Clubhouse. The demand was in the form of a resolution presented by Mrs. Fannie Shaw Fisher of Galesburg, Ill., and came from the ranks of the women's movement. It was endorsed by the convention.

This resolution was accompanied by a list of names of the Senators and others, covering subjects ranging from women's rights to hold property to the Chicago mine disaster.

Before adjourning to the Auditorium Hotel, where Mrs. Philip Snowden, leader of English suffragists, was in luncheon, the women listened to the report of Mrs. Fannie H. Raston, who told how the suffrage bill had been carried on through church organizations.

Mrs. Snowden promised her co-workers in efforts of Chicago suffragists to arrange a parade in every large city in the United States.

Searchers Redouble Efforts.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHERRY (Ill.) Nov. 21.—Twenty saved, ninety-two known dead and 188 missing was the record at the St. Paul mine tonight.

What had promised to be Cherry's real day of thanksgiving ended in a night of hope deferred, or despair. Tonight no living man or boy had been added to the list of the twenty rescued yesterday.

All day the tolling of church bells resounded in Cherry and Spring Valley. Eighteen bodies were interred. Each hour that passed, a few victims remained awaiting removal, while a score of caskets were piled near by for bodies which are to come.

Services for the dead were held outside the mine, where a second priest was deemed it advisable that the bodies be taken.

From the still unfilled graves in which the Roman Catholic dead were placed, the priest hurried to the mine entrance where, with a second priest, he waited to administer the last rites for the dying should his services be needed.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 21.—Richard P. Ratliff, a rancher 65 years old, was killed this morning by a passenger train, while crossing the Santa Fé tracks on lower C street, within the limits of the city. For many years this

Ratliff was driving to town, and realized his danger only when the train was within a few feet. His wagon was demolished and he was thrown beneath the wheels of the train, being badly mangled. A pathetic feature of the accident is that he family of the deceased

RECLAMATION PROJECT.
A group of local capitalists is taking an interest in a project in Southern Nevada, which has for its purpose the reclamation of 200,000 acres in Clark and Nye counties. Rasor brothers, local engineers, who are connected with the Tonopah-Tidewater, have been over much of the ground, and long since gave it as their opinion that it would be feasible to use the waters of the Amargosa for irriga-

The lands mapped out for reclamation lie along the river, having easy points of vantage with the Tonopah Tidewater, and if the scheme succeeds this vast acreage will within a few years become noted for its crops, as it is stated that it needs only sufficient water to transform it from a wilderness into productive farm lands. San Bernardino will reap a large benefit as this city will become a chief commercial point for the colonists.

The matter is now in the hands of Judge P. J. Somers, J. P. Loftus

HEARS OF DEATH.
Joseph Ost, head of the Santa Fe coast line oil storehouse department, today received word of the death at Los Angeles of his brother, Benjamin J. Ost, of pneumonia. The information came to the Santa Fe official through a Mississippi lodge of Elks, of which the deceased was a member. It was the first news Ost had that his brother had died, and that the heart trouble

Two Men Have Their Legs Broken and Companion Receives Serious Internal Injuries.

REDLANDS, Nov. 21.—J. Pellé and José had their legs broken and Joseph Wells received internal injuries in an accident occurring shortly after o'clock yesterday afternoon at the farm & Roettcher house, here, when in course of construction on Orange street, near the Santa Fe depot. The big barn is being built of brick, and the scaffolding on which the masons and helpers were working was overloaded. Suddenly the timbers gave way, and the three men dropped to the ground. The committee in charge of the Elks' lodge of Sarrows, the annual memorial service of that organization, of which William Stowe Devol is chairman, has secured to deliver the oration and address, Rev. C. F. Blaisdel, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, and Rev.

That sort of thing does us good and we'd like to have all of you feel the same way about it; "OUR" foremost clothing store. This coming Thanksgiving week we've decided to again place on sale all our

STRENGTHENS FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN TWO COUNTRIES.

Expressed by Head of the Japanese Visiting
Party in Speaking in Farwell — Notable Functions
Monday at the Y.M.C.A. and Elsewhere — Baron Kanda at the First Congregational Church.

great enthusiasm, and many were afforded the opportunity of meeting the commissioners at the close of the exercises. While the men were thus occupied, the ladies were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fitzgerald.
Later in the evening the members
of the Chamber of Commerce Reception Committee said farewell to their guests at the La Grande station. "Our stay in Los Angeles has been most pleasant," said Baron Kanda. "I assure you we deeply feel the warmth of your hospitality. It has seemed as if we had been among old friends. It shows us that the American people are our friends. The tour over this country has been most instructive as well
as pleasant."
The commissioners arrived in Seattle
on the steamship Minnesota, September 1. They left five days later in one of the best-equipped special trains ever sent out by the Pullman Company. It consists of one baggage car, one combined electric dynamo and baggage car,
one diner, one open Pullman car, four compartment cars and one combined
compartment and observation car.
In this sumptuous train the thirty-nine commissioners, secretaries and American representatives have visited
about fifty leading cities of this country. When they reach San Francisco,
they will have covered more than 11,
000 miles without any accident or serious sickness. The party will sail from San Francisco the 20th inst.
The tour was made upon the invitation of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the Pacific Coast—Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco,
Oakland, Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane
and Portland. About a year ago, the commercial organizations of Tokyo, Yokohama, Osaka, Kyoto and Kobe
extended an invitation to the Pacific Coast bodies to send a delegation of representative business men to visit Japan. About thirty made the tour,
and were received with lavish
hospitality. The trip now almost concluded was a return compliment to the Japanese.
Before leaving home, Baron Shibusawa, the head of the party, made the following explanation of the reasons
for the journey.
"A glance at the fifty-five years past history of Japan brings before us most vividly the value of the gentle yet firm
guidance of America. Commodore Perry, with four gun-of-war arrived
at Japan and pressed her, with strong determination, to open her ports to commerce. The Bakufu, the existing government at that time, accepted
the good will of America and gave consent to open Yokohama and Kobe for trading purposes.
"Mr. Harris, the American minister to Japan, protected the Bakufu from
the kind of instructor so as to shut out unreasonable claims likely to be made by other powers and we are greatly indebted to America."
"Last year we invited American business men, and by the special call
of the American squadron the friendly
relations between the two countries have been specially strengthened. My visit to America at this juncture is to intensify this friendly relation and to further the Japanese-American trade relations. We visit America, not simply as business men but as representatives of the entire population of Japan."
The Baron uttered similar sentiments
while here, and expressed the hope that direct commerce between Los Angeles and Japanese ports will soon be a reality.
Among those who helped entertain
the distinguished Japanese guests of Los Angeles were Walter J. Ballard,
on whom the Japanese government
has bestowed the Order of the Rising Sun.

GO TO VIEW COTTON FIELD.

JAPANESE MAKE TRIP TO IM-PERIAL VALLEY.

If They Find Textile Product of
That Region Adapted to Their Needs It Is Likely to Hasten Completion of Close Commercial Relations With Los Angeles.

Several members of the party of honorary commercial commissioners from Japan became so much interested in the cotton grown in the Imperial Valley that they took a special trip there

Prof. John P. Goode
of the University of Chicago, who predicts a glowing future for Imperial Valley cotton.

yesterday, to make a careful investigation. Their interest was partially aroused by viewing the cotton exhibit
in the Chamber of Commerce. Another reason for their interest is the favorable report made by Prof. John P. Goode of the University of Chicago, who is an expert on soils and products.
He believes that the Imperial Valley
will produce a quality of cotton that heretofore has only been grown in the valley of the Nile, and that in years to come, the Imperial section will supply
not only this country, but oriental nations with their best grades of cotton.
"I am pleased to note that several leading textile manufacturers of our party are to investigate the claims made for the Imperial cotton," said he yesterday. "I believe that valley is
the coming center of the fine cotton industry of this part of the world. Its climate and soil is similar to that of the delta of the Nile. It has been found impossible to raise the soft, silky
grades of cotton in the South, and until the government experiment station
began to take up the question of raising the Egyptian cotton in the Imperial Valley, it was thought impossible that this country could ever compete with Egypt. I believe the industry will assume large proportions in years to come, and the farmers will draw their attention to an industry that promises such great returns."
Prof. Goode said if the Japanese conclude they can get as fine a quality
of cotton as they can in Egypt, they will doubtless import large quantities
for their mills. He also stated that with the cheap oil fuel in use here
there is no reason why Los Angeles
cannot build cotton mills and manufacture cloth in large quantities.
Among the members of the party of commissioners who are interested in cotton raising are T. Macdonald, K. Ta-katsuki and J. Nishimura. If they find the Imperial cotton is adapted to their needs, it is by no means impossible that this fact will hasten the completion of closer commercial relations between Japan and Los Angeles. During the trip around the harbor last Friday several of the commissioners, who are connected with the steamship lines in their own country, expressed their belief that it will not be long before a line of Japanese steamers is put on the Los Angeles run.
With plenty of baled cotton from
the Imperial Valley and manufactured articles here suitable for export, it is believed the steamers would be filled
each voyage with profitable freight.

DR. HENRY RESIGNS.

Will Retire from Pastorate of
First Baptist Church to Go Abroad.

At the conclusion of the evening service at the First Baptist Church yesterday, Rev. Dr. J.
Q. A. Henry, formally tendered his resignation as pastor. This was accepted by the congregation
with many expressions of regret. It was remarked by a number of members of the flock
that Dr. Henry's plans for a trip abroad made it impossible
to do else than accept the resignation, although they wished
that it were not so. The retiring pastor expects to sail for
New Zealand about the first of February.

EX-PROSECUTOR SPEAKS.

Tells Audience at the Murphy Gospel Temperance Meeting About His Experiences.

Impressions gained by him when he was city prosecutor were told by E. J.
Fleming in his address before the Francis Murphy Gospel Temperance Association at Blanchard Hall last night. In the course of his remarks
he said:
"During the time that I was city
prosecutor there were men who said
that I was a vicious and dangerous
man; but I want to say that I have seldom prosecuted a man that I did not feel sorry for him from the bottom of my heart. I could not know the environment, the temptations and the circumstances that induced me to give up that line of work was that I was continually obliged to witness the sorrow
that came to the innocent ones by the acts of the transgressor."
But the world is growing better. Ten years ago it was a common thing to see wide-open saloons all over the city. My father was obliged to surrender in a wagon and four-horse team
every Sunday evening to round up his men so as to have them back on the streets Monday morning. Not one man in ten saved any money. It went into the coffers of the saloon-keeper. But now the liquor traffic has been arrested in its progress greatly, and can be arrested to a greater extent if the citizens of this country will do their civic duty."

LAND, AND WATER, TOO.

Local Company Has Scheme to Plant
Forty Thousand Acres to Eucalyptus Along Aqueeduct.

The American Forestation Company
has filed a proposal with the City Council to lease all the land along the Owens River that is available and suitable for the growth of eucalyptus.
It wants the lease to run for fifteen years, with the right to use the water from the aqueduct for irrigating the trees. The company wishes the right to the trees and timber, but agrees to do the cutting in a scientific manner,
so as not to injure the trees.
According to its scheme, it will
plant 200 acres within one year, 6,000
acres within two years, and 25,000
acres within three years. If the proposition is accepted by the city, the company
agrees to pay $20,000 down, the same amount in one year, and $50,000 in two years. It is claimed that the proposition will be worth $100,000 to the city when it acquires possession at the termination of the fifteen-year lease.
Secretary Gaskill of the Forestation Company requests the opportunity to present the plan in person before the Council.

THREE SATURDAY BURGLARIES.

Three burglaries were reported to the police yesterday afternoon, all of them
having been committed Saturday night.
E. E. Johnson, No. 127 Albany street,
reported that a rear door of his house
had been opened with a pass key by thieves who took mining tools, gold coins and jewelry aggregating in value $245. C. H. Thompson of No.
1118 East Twenty-first street, reported that his home had been entered
through a side window by some burglar who stole a lady's watch and chain, the value of which he did not

I Grow Taller Every Day

You can increase your height
from two to five inches by
this method.

Absolutely harmless, strictly scientific and endorsed by Leading physicians.

Free book explains it.

Results quickly accomplished
at home.

MR. K. LEO MINGES.

"I have increased my height nearly eight inches since I began following the Cartilage method. These results are lasting and are a great surprise to my friends. Write me and I will give you my hearty or guess work about it. Those who knew me before and know me now
are ready to swear to this statement.
I am interested in all who are short and stunted and I will gladly tell you how I acquired this increased height. There is no pain or inconvenience connected with
it. No electricity, drugs or knife used;
simply a process which causes the Car-
tilages to expand and lengthen the bones. Write me and I will tell you how to receive the same benefits which I have received. Tell me your exact height and age and I will give you information that will surprise you. You will also receive my free book which tells all about this remarkable discovery
and it contains the pictures and statements of many who have increased their height from two to five inches. All correspondence will be held strictly confidential, and all letters and books sent free in plain envelopes. You can increase your height if you are not over fifty years of age. This method also develops the body proportionately. Write today for the absolute proof. Do not take my word for it, but satisfy yourself. I can prove it to you if you will give me the opportunity. Address: The Cartilage Co., 1244 Unity Bldg.,

Mrs. Gardner Knows Value

Of a Medicine That Prevented Necessity for an Operation—Car-
dul, the Woman's Tonic.

Waco, Tex.—Mrs. M. B. Gardner of R.F.D. No. 4, Waco, Tex., writes: "I will recommend Cardul to all my friends, for I know its value."

"I suffered with female trouble for twelve years, and five doctors decided that I would have to have an operation, but I took Cardul instead and I believe that Cardul is the cause of my improvement in health."

Take a tonic when you are tired, all the time, when your night's sleep does not rest you; when your head is dull
and dizzy and frequently aches; when everything seems to go wrong and
your thoughts are blue.

The trouble is that you need a tonic
—Cardul, of course, the woman's tonic.
The weak, worn-out nerves show the effects of strain, the tired, racked body needs help to build up the nerves.

Cardul will give it.
Made of purely vegetable, perfectly harmless ingredients, Cardul is no ordinary drug medicine.

No physician can prescribe a medicine made from Cardul ingredients, because not in the pharmacopoeia or in any drug store.
The principal herb ingredients are especially imported by us from Europe
—collected there especially for us—
to make the medicine that for over 50
years has been helping sick women
back to health.
Try it.

Germes In Her System

Every Woman Should Read
this Advice and the Generous Offer that Goes
With It.

The number of diseases peculiar to women is such that we believe this space would hardly contain a mention of their names, and it is a fact that most of these diseases are of a catarrhal nature. A woman cannot be well if there is a trace of catarrh in her system.

Some women think there is no help
for them. We positively declare this to be a mistaken idea. We are so sure of this that we offer to supply
medicine absolutely free of all cost
in every instance where it falls to give satisfaction or does not substitute our claims. With this understanding, no woman should hesitate to believe our honesty of purpose, or hesitate to put our claims to a test.

There is only one way to overcome catarrh. That way is through the blood. You may use all the snuffs, douches or like remedies for years
without getting more than temporary relief at best. Catarrh in general is a diseased condition of the system that shows locally most frequently in discharges from mucous membranes. Local treatment should be assisted by internal treatment for the general diseased condition if a complete cure is to be reached. That internal treatment should be scientifically devised
and faithfully administered.

Rehall Mucuo-Tone is scientifically prepared from the prescription of an eminent physician who for thirty years
made catarrh his specialty. This remedy is admirably adapted to the treatment of the catarrhal ailments of women. It purifies and enriches the blood, tends to stop mucous discharges, aids in removing, heals and strengthens the mucous tissues, and brings about a feeling of health and strength.

We want you to try Rehall Mucuo-Tone on our guarantee. If you are not benefited, or for any reason not satisfied, simply tell us and we will hand back your money. Rehall Mucuo-Tone comes in two sizes, 50 cents
and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rehall Remedies in Los Angeles only
at our stores, The Rexall Stores, The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Cal., and Seattle,

PASADENA. BURDETTE IS IN OLD FORM.

Splendid Sermon Heard by a Large Congregation.

Crown City Fastly Impresses Japanese Visitors.

Swedish Church Is Dedicated by Dr. Hughes.

Office of The Times, No. 218 N. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Nov. 2.—Dr. Robert J. Burdette delivered an excellent sermon yesterday at the West Side Congregational Church.

This is the first time he has preached since his recent illness and many members from Temple Baptist Church came to Pasadena to hear him.

The church was crowded.

He took for his topic, "The Overhanging Branches" (Genesis 19:22).

The blessing of Jacob pronounced upon Joseph—"Joseph is a fruitful bough; a fruitful bough by a fountain; his branches hang over the wall." In part that "few years ago" a popular song had this refrain, "Every little bit, added to what you've got, makes just a little bit more."

That's the wise philosophy of worldly prudence and thrift, and it is excellent, so far as it goes. The saving bank is a good school of prudence. But it isn't a good substitute for the church.

Although it is the only one that some people attend. A little tin savings bank is not the answer to the baby; a little tin iron ore on his table in the boy's room, a big wall of chilled steel for father, all show good training in saving. Lay a little bit of it by, as it comes in. A little bit of it by, as it comes in. A little bit of it by, as it comes in.

JAPANESE VISITORS.

Yesterday morning a number of the members of the Japanese Commercial Commission took in the beauties of Pasadena by automobile under the guidance of Walter Raymond, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, and James H. Mason, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Four big autos left the Alexandria at 8:30 for the city of the Crown City.

The first point of interest visited was the Raymond Hotel. The visitors were shown over the grounds and through the big winter hotel. The Japanese examined the hotel very carefully and asked many questions about it.

The next point of interest visited was the Busch gardens. The Japanese were taken by surprise at the beautiful grounds and flower gardens.

The visitors were next taken for a ride through the principal streets of Pasadena. The beautiful grounds of the Huntington were visited. After a ride over the various drives and lanes of the estate the new mansion was visited. The Huntington spent nearly an hour carefully examining the architecture and plans for the home. Rinnosuke Hara and his assistant, I. Tanaka, were the guides. The Huntington carefully explained the details of the big building to them.

Leaving the Huntington the route back to Los Angeles was through other beautiful streets of Pasadena to the Annandale Country Club where a short stop was made. The Japanese were greatly delighted with the club buildings and grounds and in the most unlikely that a golf link and clubhouse will be built in Japan patterned after Annandale.

CHURCH DEDICATED.

A notable event among the Swedish people of Pasadena was the dedication of their Methodist Episcopal Church at the corner of Summit and Villa streets yesterday afternoon. The service was under the direction of the Rev. J. O. Wahlberg, pastor, and the dedicatory sermon was preached by Dr. Robert J. Burdette.

The church is a fine example of the First Methodist Church.

Dr. Hughes spoke of the objects for which the church stands, saying in part: "There are many religions, and many faiths, and each has sound doctrine, but I challenge any one to bring me any single thing pertaining to the salvation of the world or the ethics of righteous living which cannot be found in the teachings of Jesus Christ. When Christ taught the world his system of religious truth he beggared the future. Never has any one in the years since his death looked upon the religion taught by him. This new church stands for the fact that the Christian religion is superior to all other religions and beliefs of the world has ever known. The Christian religion is the only one that teaches the equality of the sexes. In no other religion is a woman recognized."

The beautiful new church, which is built of brick and handsomely finished inside, cost $49,000, and is complete with a full kitchen, a dining room, a Sunday-school room and a kitchen and dining room. The lot on which the church stands is a beautiful one, and the building is all paid for with the exception of $500. A subscription was taken yesterday for $1500 to apply on payment for the lot.

TWO HAT TALES.

H. C. Hotelling & Co. think an attempt was made to fleece them out of $50 late Saturday night. Just before closing time some one rang them up and asked them to stand by a hat sent to No. 384 Cypress street and to bring along change for a $50 bill.

Hotelling figured out that there is no house at that number. Instead of a change for a $50 bill, he took some change in his pocket, a pistol and a $5 hat under his arm. He went up Cypress street and when he got to where No. 384 should be, he found a man sitting on the curb, who ran away at the approach of Hotelling.

Later Saturday night H. C. Robbins of No. 173 South Euclid avenue states he was held up and his pockets searched at Sierra Vista station on the Santa Anita line. The hold-up man lost his hat while making a search for money and now Robbins has an old light felt hat as a souvenir of his experience with a hold-up man.

CARD PARTY.

Seldom have the members of the Valley Hunt Club enjoyed a gayety festivity than the progressive card party given at the clubhouse Saturday evening, the details of which were arranged by the men members of the entertainment committee. The success of the party was due to the efforts of Torrey Everett, Clinton Churchill Clarke, Thomas Snowdon Tompkins and Dr. Elliot Alden.

The musical idea was carried out in the arrangements of the decorations and the appointments were more original than artistic and conventional. The score cards were crudely torn from wrapping paper and wherever a feminine pin would have done duty a man was found.

Four prizes were awarded and these were won by Mrs. John E. Jardine and Torrey Everett, Messrs. Charles D. Daggett and Wm. St. John Roney.

Refreshments were served in the dining room and the coffee was graciously presided over by Harrison M. Lutz and Dr. Francis P. Rowland, who donated a few feminine trills for the occasion. There were sixty club members present.

The Pasadena Country Club was the scene of a handsomely appointed dinner party Saturday evening, when John S. Cravens of South Orange Grove avenue entertained in honor of James A. Pollock of Bellefontaine street and his guest, H. L. Block of St. Louis. Covers were laid for Messrs. John B. Miller, Wm. R. Staats, Lloyd Macy, Tod W. Charles, D. Calvery Edward H. Greenendyke, Fred Elmer Wilcox, Edward R. Kelam, Don McGilvray, Robert R. Rowan, Samuel Supple Pierce, Arthur A. Libby, William Park, Charles Cranz Perkins, Harry Gray, Dr. Drummond, E. J. Marshall and Harry Gray.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Fenelon Rowland and Mr. and Mrs. C. Warring Lafford were issued invitations for a reception and dance to be given at the Valley Hunt Club Tuesday evening, December 7. Reception from 5 to 10, dancing at 10.

Mrs. Walstein Root of North Grand avenue, who spent the summer in Denver, is at Hotel Maryland for a week, having come here on a business connected with her late husband's estate. Mrs. Root will spend the winter with her mother in Ojai.

Hop for John Burr.
John Burr, the former sheriff, who was hurt in an automobile accident more than two years ago and who was reported to be in a sinking condition at the California Hospital recently, was, at midnight last night, showing signs of marked improvement. Mr. Burr is not yet out of danger, as his years make recovery from such serious injuries a slow and painful process, but he was said last night to be "doing very nicely and improving all the time."

BREVITIES.

Southern Pacific of Mexico.—Along the line of this new railroad, recently rushed to completion by order of the late Mr. Harrison, are stretches of fertile agricultural land and rich mineral deposits. The Mexican States of Sonora, Sinaloa and Guaymas, as well as the territory of Tepic, are destined to benefit largely by the advent of transportation facilities. The Los Angeles Times will publish on Sunday, Nov. 28, a special Mexican section, to be devoted to the exploitation of this region, describing in detail the country and its resources, both present and prospective. Persons seeking information concerning these Mexican States can secure it by purchasing a Sunday Times of that date. Copies of the special sheet will be sold in quantity, at 4 cents each. It is to be a splendid advertising medium for those having interests in that section, as a large number of copies of the sheet will be mailed everywhere. Advertising copy for insertion in this issue should be in the Times office before noon, November 22.

Profit to Times.—A splendid opportunity is offered real estate dealers and owners in the classified department of the forthcoming Sunday Times of the Times, to be issued on January 1. This special edition, with a guaranteed circulation exceeding 125,000 copies, will be an especially desirable medium through which to exploit attractive offers for the sale of agricultural properties, well as city homes. Copy will be accepted until December 28. Rate, 2 cents per word.

DISAPPEARING GOLD.

Woman is Victim of Game of Battle done by French and American Postal Authorities.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A bag containing $500 in gold, with which the postal authorities of Paris and New York played battle-dore and shuttlecock, has disappeared. It belonged to Mrs. Theodore W. Stummeler of this city, who left it lying on a seat in a train coming from Madison, N.J.
Mrs. Stummeler sailed for Europe before the bag was recovered by her secretary. He sent it in a registered package to Paris. The French officials declined to deliver it, the laws not allowing them to receive or transfer coin. They shipped it back and show a receipt from the New York postoffice to prove it. The postal authorities say it never came back to them. As for Mrs. Stummeler the only satisfaction she has had from the authorities here is that among so many employees, there must be some dishonest ones.

FRAT. BANQUET FOR PEARY.
NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—In honor of "Brother Peary," the Delta Kappa Epsilon has planned one of the largest college fraternity dinners ever held, for December 14, at the Hotel Astor. Commander Peary is a member of Theta chapter, Delta Kappa Epsilon, at Bowdoin College. Two years ago the fraternity aided the explorer and gave him the fraternity flag, which Peary took with him and unfurled with the Stars and Stripes at the North Pole.

MINES AND MINING.

TEN THOUSAND TO BE RAISED.

Sierra Madre Club Promises Miners Five.

To Get Convention Will Pay Lobby Expenses.

Expenses of the Meeting Also to Be Borne.

The directors of the Sierra Madre Club, at a recent meeting, unanimously passed a resolution guaranteeing $5000 for the use of the American Mining Congress in obtaining needed legislation at Washington, conditional upon next year's convention being held in Los Angeles, the amount to be raised by the sale of ordinary and life memberships in the national organization. The club also guarantees the expenses of the convention, which will probably be $5000 additional. All this in direct line with the policy announced at Goldfield.

The club will not cease the sale of memberships when $5000 has been raised, but will aim to get as much more as possible, to be used in the endeavor to establish a Bureau of Mines and to obtain other legislation desired to aid the miner and oil producer, the latter of whom an effort is being made to interest in the congress for the first time.

The cooperation of other organizations is sought, in the belief that the coming of the congress to Los Angeles will bring the largest attendance in the organization's history, and will proclaim this city throughout the world as the mining center of the Southwest.

Skiddoo Cuts Vein.
The Skiddoo Mines have cut a new vein that intersects the main ledge, discovered at 300-foot depth, and traceable up the slopes for seventy-five feet, of milling ore averaging better than $20 a ton. The vein is also found near the surface, proving it to be a continuation of the one cutting into the footwall of No. 1, which has from two to four feet of similar ore. Development of the main vein is fine, and No. 2, a waste vein, is shown at 200 feet depth, showing the mill and concentrating plant that has been operated for about a year is showing good results. Its daily capacity is fifty tons.

The cyanide plant has been closed until after the severe winter weather shall have passed. It will be started probably in March, and will add materially to the output.
A car shipped to El Paso has just been heard from. It showed a return on concentrates of 15 ounces gold and 25-silver. Mining and milling cost for October was reduced to $4.60 a ton, leaving a nice profit on the grade of ore taken out. The monthly tonnage amounted to approximately 120 tons. Last month's run something over this, due to trouble with power. Hauling wire became, in some manner, fastened in the pipes and delayed operation. This has been adjusted, and no interference with the power is now experienced.

Machinery in Place.
The twenty-five horse-power hoist recently ordered for the St. Francis mine, near Wickenburg, Ariz., has been installed and is in operation. Buildings are being completed and the camp arranged to permit the operation of a much larger force. Cleveland capitalists interested have been visiting the property, and it is said that all necessary capital for development has been arranged.

Movements of Mining Men.
C. Colcock Jones, consulting engineer, after an absence of months, returned to Los Angeles. He is now in the city, has gone to Tucson for a short visit.
C. M. Shannon, one of the original owners of the Shannon Copper Company, and a well-known mining man in this city, has gone to Tucson for a short visit.

Some Officers of Burned Steamer.
Captain Warner (above), who has been praised on all sides for his courageous handling of the situation; Chief Engineer Charles E. Lowe (left), and Purser J. S. Ford, who were the first to spread the news that all on board had been saved.

IN CHOKING, BLINDING FUMES, HEROES STAND BY THE PUMPS.

WELL DONE.

HELD prisoner by their duty in the engine room until all but one of the life boats had departed for shore, Chief Engineer Charles E. Lowe of San Francisco, and several assistants, had an experience more harrowing than that of any other persons aboard the St. Croix. Almost blinded, and able to breathe only with difficulty because of the fumes that escaped from a broken ammonia pipe, the men were engaged in making repairs to the refrigerating apparatus of the vessel when they received the alarm of fire.

The pipe leading from the ammonia tank had broken shortly after the steamer left San Pedro on her north-bound trip, and the choking gas in great quantities had permeated the ship, to the great discomfort of passengers. The trouble was so great that it resulted in the opening of all port holes in order to better the ventilation.

With wet towels tied over their noses and mouths, Lowe and his aids, working in the same room where, but a few days before, the former chief engineer, Otis Doe, had been scalded to death, labored for hours, as in a gas-filled coal mine, to patch the break.

Each shift of men would stay in the room but a few minutes, and before hardly any headway had been made in the repair of the ammonia pipe, the alarm of fire was sounded. An instant later Capt. Warner shouted through the tube that every pump must go into action in the effort to save the ship. This was but a few minutes after the noon hour.

Lowe and his men dropped work on the ammonia pipes and turned to the pumps, though the stifling fumes from the chemical at times almost forced them to leave their posts.

Two at a time the men stood by the pumps, which shot seven to ten one-half inch streams into the fire in the second cabin. As one pair dashed in exhaustion from the room, two others took their places, and so it continued for an hour and a half, when Lowe and his companions were ordered hastily to the deck, just in time to get off in the last boat.

"I guess they're working yet," said Lowe yesterday morning, "unless the fire has warped the plungers."

Passengers and crew safely landed, the men who had been engaged in providing night's shelter and food for the refugees, while Lowe and Purser J. S. Ford were directed to make their way from the landing-place to Santa Monica, to spread the news of the burning of the vessel and of the rescue of all on board.

Starting from the remote section of the Malibu ranch, near Point Dume, where they had landed, Lowe and Ford followed the road for a short distance, then struck the rails of the Los Angeles, Malibu and Tuenness Railroad, which they followed toward Santa Monica. Darkness had set in long before and the men had only the stars to guide them to their destination.

Suddenly, behind them, they heard the sounds of what they supposed was an automobile. A small headlight flashed into view and in another instant the pedestrians discovered that the noise was caused by a small gasoline motor car used by a construction gang on the railroad. It was bound quarters of the big ranch. The car was flagged and Lowe and Ford boarded it, but it had proceeded but a short distance when it struck a small obstruction on the track and was derailed. Lowe was tossed on the rails ahead of the car and one of the wheels passed over both his feet. The other passengers were thrown into the ditch but were not injured.

Lowe's hurt did not entirely disable him, however, and when the car finally reached the end of the line he

CAPTAIN BOLD NO BRAGGART.

Warner, Whose Bravery Was Marked, Claims no Credit for Saving Charges.

Capt. Warner, to whose cool nerve is attributed the saving of the lives of all on board the St. Croix, displayed fortitude that marked him a brave officer and gallant seaman. He had no word of blame for any one, but, on the contrary, highly praised the conduct of his crew and the courage of the majority of the passengers. He declined to discuss his gallant part in the work of rescue. "I simply did what any other man would do under the same circumstances," he said.

When seen at the Occidental Hotel, he was shaving with one hand, while with the other he held a candle close to the mirror. He looked trim and well-groomed.

"I think the main facts were given in the papers," said he. "Every possible effort was made to extinguish the flames. When it became necessary to leave the vessel it was done in an orderly manner. The sea was calm and there was little difficulty in getting the passengers into the small boats."

The captain stated that he was not at liberty to discuss the probable cause of the fire until he had made his report to his superiors. While he was speaking there came a telephone call for him to go at once to San Francisco. He hurriedly completed his toilet, and, without waiting for dinner, rushed for a car which would take him to the Arcade station in time to catch the evening train for the north.

night in camp with as little discomfort as could be expected. It was not an easy task to find enough firewood, and the coast was scoured for two miles and fences and trees chopped down and used to keep the party warm. There was an ax in each boat.

The most of the discomfort came from lack of dry clothing. In landing the boats on the beach many survivors were soaked to the skin in getting through the breakers. There was little water to drink, and not much of a variety of food. However, there were few who were hungry after their thrilling experiences, and the biscuits on hand were more than sufficient.

In the whole party of nearly 150 there were only four disabled, two of whom were women. R. B. German, the ship's carpenter, was hit on the head by a falling block when a rope broke and spilled the occupants of the second boat into the sea.

The survivors brought into port on the Perry included E. P. Whitehead, first assistant engineer; Sidney Finley, J. Perrington, J. Moran, J. LaFort, E. Evans, E. Casey, J. Doon, second cabin steward; E. Blount, and two quartermasters, all of the ship's crew.

WRECKS OFF MALIBU REVIVE OLD ROMANCE.

The St. Croix is by no means the first ship that has met disaster along the shores of mytic Malibu. Four years ago the Crescent City went ashore one afternoon in a cove just beyond the high rocks of Point Dume. Fortunately there was no loss of life.

A passing steamer took off the passengers, and during the night a tug from Redondo succeeded in pulling the boat off without injury, at extreme high tide.

For more than a century the coasts and cañons of the mountains in the Malibu vicinity have been the favored prospecting grounds of treasure hunters. There are traditions handed down from before the days of the padres of treasure ships wrecked along this coast. There are tales of pirate horde. The sea is indeed a dull one that does not witness the organization of a party for the purpose of digging for the Spanish wealth that is supposed to be hidden in the recesses of the mountains.

Cabrillo touched along this coast as early as 1542, and there were in the days of long ago evidences tending to show that one of the Manila treasure ships which had been run down by Francis Drake, the pirate, was wrecked in the vicinity. The gold and guineas were supposed to have been recovered from the wreckage and buried deep in the recesses of a Malibu cañon. The story goes that the pirates were killed by the Indians, and even to this day there are those who believe the gold in the great chests has never been recovered. Each season some prospector comes out of the hills with an alluring tale of having found the key to the location of the treasure. One time a piece of one of the chests was unearthed, and again the discovery is in the form of a gold coin of foreign pattern and ancient date. Last year the story dealt with the finding of a decaying nutmeg shell of the pirate fleet of the olden days. But the secret of the Malibu has never yet been revealed.

Returning Government Boat Answers Bonfire Signal and Picks Up Last Survivors to Leave Camp at Malibu Ranch—Lands Them at San Pedro—The Injured.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.
SAN PEDRO, Nov. 21.—Fifteen survivors of the burned steamer St. Croix, all men, were picked up by the cutter Perry, which arrived here this afternoon on the rescue cutter Perry. These were the last to leave the little camp in the cañon early this morning. They were carrying Sidney Finley, the waiter whose arm was broken while saving women and children, on a stretcher. Finley was clad in insufficient clothing and suffering from the exposure. While moving slowly along the railroad toward Santa Monica, they sighted the Perry and signaled her by building a fire.

The Perry had just sunk the derelict of the burned steamer and was searching along the coast in the fog for the camp of the survivors. When she sighted the derelict nothing was visible above the water line but two oil tanks. She was fired into the derelict

TALK NO. THREE.

IN buying ready-to-wear suits from a store in which you can place your reliance for absolutely fair treatment, and of a merchant who is competent to make a selection of not only good, wear-well garments, but also properly tailored and of good quality, having all the marks of style, it is not always the price you pay for them, if value is there. If your suit does not give reasonably good wear, then the VALUE is not there, and you look to your dealer, not to the manufacturer, to make good. If he is willing to do so, you are a satisfied customer—his judgment in regard to the make insures your purchase.

Our 26 years of experience in selecting fabrics that not only contain all these essentials, but positively guarantee satisfaction. Our stock includes a pleasing assortment of ten of America's Leading Clothes Makers—handsome fabrics and individual styles—it will pay you to see them.

Human nature is a strange concoction. To the dainty girl in the grand stand the football player with his teeth knocked out, his mouth full of mud and his nose broken is the most adorable spectacle.

SOME REASONS FOR THANKS.

Dramatic feature after dramatic feature attended the burning of the steamer St. Croix, but the most notable fact in connection with the disaster is that every person on board was saved. Moreover, the seven men overboard were rescued as a fire ship. A burning ship in a waste of waters is a splendid yet fearful spectacle. Nothing is so provocative of panic on a crowded passenger vessel as a fire. But, thanks to the captain of the St. Croix and to a heroic pantyman, and to the climate of Southern California, no loss of life attended the disaster off Point Dume on Saturday. Capt. Warner proved a strong man, able to rise to all the demands called out by the distressing circumstances, while the man from the steward's department who saved women and a child who were thrown from a boat into the ocean was the hero of the day.

In all the history of marine disasters in the Pacific Coast, and it is a long and very painful one, we know of no more noble work than that performed by the captain of the St. Croix, while the pantyman is worthy to rank with the wireless operator who called for assistance on the steamship Ohio and the wife of the lighthouse keeper at Cape Beale who did so much to aid the few survivors of the wreck of the steamer Valencia.

Both in the case of the Ohio, a few months back, and in the wreck of the Valencia, several years ago, lives were forfeited. The St. Croix took no human toll. Perhaps if the disaster had occurred further north, on the rock-bound and desolate coast which stretches from Cape Mendocino to dreaded Point Flattery, a different story might have been told. Off that long and rugged coastline storms rage at this season and a landing in a small boat is extremely hazardous.

Our Southern California waters, however, are seldom disturbed by gales and our shore offers comparatively easy access, as the passengers of the St. Croix found to their satisfaction on Saturday afternoon. In expressing appreciation, therefore, of the efforts of the captain and men who worked so well under him we can point with pride to the climate of our favored section which was largely instrumental in reducing this disaster to the actual loss of the steamer itself.

GREAT PROBLEMS TO SOLVE.

Congress will meet two weeks from tomorrow. It is likely to be in many respects one of the most important sessions since the close of the great Civil War, if the proposed legislation is passed it will be the beginning of a new era in American statehood. New laws will be spread on the statute books which will mean the active participation of the government in branches of semi-private business never known before.

The new banking law in process of formation will in all probability provide for a great central bank. In its management the government will have more to say than it has had heretofore in anything connected with the private and semi-private finances of the country. The opening of this new bank is likely to affect the relations between the government and the national banks, about 7000 in number, already doing business in all parts of the country.

The Times in a recent issue so fully discussed this subject that it may be dropped at this time, except to say that our export trade is so large and is increasing so rapidly that we are in the midst of an unprecedented world movement, and this makes a central bank almost essential to the business we do with foreign countries.

Another business of quite as great importance to come before Congress this winter is the amending of the so-called anti-trust laws, and the broadening of the scope of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The laws usually known as the Sherman act and that going under the name of the Hepburn act were enacted when we knew very little of the troubles sure to arise in dealing with the vast corporate combines that exist in our business affairs today. They are said to be faulty to a degree that renders their application according to the strict letter of the law impossible. Mr. Roosevelt when President said the strict enforcement of these laws would put about every large corporation in the country out of business. There are valuable features in these laws which should be maintained. Efforts will be made to amend these laws, and the press and people should keep a watchful eye over them when their amendment comes up.

Two years ago or more The Times pointed out the grave difficulties that arise because of the clashes sure to come between Federal and State authorities in enforcing laws passed by Congress to deal with trusts operating in undue restraint of trade and other laws passed by State Legislatures. Within the current month a case of this kind has arisen in dealing with railroads in certain of the Southern States, and the State authorities of South Carolina have made the open statement that if the Federal courts should attempt to act in the premises, the State would resort to violence if necessary.

As our foreign commerce calls for a central bank, our interstate commerce is so large that Federal control of some of its features is imperative. The Times for some years has suggested now and again that perhaps the way out of these difficulties would be in a new law which would permit Congress to grant franchises to corporations engaged in interstate commerce on a large scale. Last week leading statesmen in discussing the questions took the same ground. There is sure to be a great clash when this is proposed in Congress. The old "States' rights" doctrine is by no means dead. The new law would almost of necessity go so far as to prohibit State interference in interstate commerce.

There is likely to be a squabble over the Reclamation Service. Those who have had the administration of this great project have been full of zeal, but not of discretion. In a few years they have exhausted the funds, more than $50,000,000, and now ask for still more liberal appropriations. They are afraid themselves to press too far, lest the country manifest disapproval of what has been done. This brief outline of what will come before Congress indicates that the United States is likely to go off on an angle more or less acute from the course of the past.

ELECTING A PARLIAMENT.

It is next to a certainty that with the opening of the year 1910 Great Britain will choose a new Parliament. The legal limit of a House of Commons is seven years. As a matter of fact, an appeal is made "to the country" more frequently than every seven years. When the government (that is, the Cabinet) cannot command a fair working majority in the "lower house" it is incumbent on it to go to the country to be endorsed in its policy or replaced by the opposition. It will be five years in January since the present Liberal government took office, and that is quite as long as Parliaments usually remain in office.

The Unionist Parliament, which gave place to that now existing, went into power with a majority of 134 in the lower house. It bore the name of a Unionist Parliament as it had been elected on the issue of home rule for Ireland, and was pledged against such a measure. During the term of its existence it lost twenty-one seats in by-elections and gained none. A dozen members went over to the Liberal side, reducing the majority in the House by nearly one-half.

November 14, 1905, Joseph Chamberlain succeeded in getting the National Union of Conservative Associations to pass resolutions in support of his tariff reform policy. That same night the Prime Minister, Mr. Balfour, spoke at Newcastle urging his followers to stand together. A few days attention to the speech of the Premier, but urging the Liberal Unionist associations to press for tariff reform. All this indicates a severing of party ties and a new alignment of the politics of the kingdom. The Unionist papers then declared that the Balfour government had not the confidence of the country and called for a new parliamentary election. November 24 there was a Cabinet meeting, followed by another December 1. Four days later Mr. Balfour resigned and next day Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman was sent for to take the head of a new Cabinet and form a ministry.

How short-lived Parliaments are may be gleaned from the life of the late William Ewart Gladstone. March 8, 1880, Lord Beaconsfield suddenly announced his purpose of appealing to the country for an endorsement of the policy of his government. Mr. Morley says Gladstone was seated at his desk writing on Homer, his favorite diversion, when he heard the news. A week later Gladstone was in Midlothian seeking reelection. He said in a letter to a friend that this was to be the last general election in which he was to be engaged. "My general elections have been 1832, 1835, 1837, 1841, 1847, 1852, 1857, 1859, 1865, 1874 and 1880. What a list!" In fifty years not one Parliament had lasted seven years. But Gladstone was not to rest. In 1885, 1886 and 1892 he was again in the field. Between 1865 and 1874 there was not an election in which Gladstone did not stand.

In about eighty years Great Britain has had nearly twenty Parliaments, or an average of one each four years. Often they come two years apart after the fashion of our House of Representatives.

The House of Lords is the real issue in the crisis. It was so in 1832 and again in 1884, when John Morley raised the cry, "Mend them or end them." There is little doubt that the Radicals will do next year what the Conservatives did in 1874 and again in 1890, go back into power with an increased majority. They would rather not go to the country at the present time, but will not "take the dose" of the Lords. They have been at the helm longer than the average life of Parliaments, and in any case would have to stand for a general election two years later.

WHO WILL TAKE LAFFAN'S PLACE?

The bright and shining New York Sun has suffered the second great loss in its history. It seemed as if its brilliancy might be dimmed if its face would not be actually eclipsed, when Charles A. Dana, the maker of the paper, died about twenty years ago. But a successor was found in the person of William F. Laffan. Now death has called this second head of the Sun away, and the question will be asked in nearly every newspaper office in America and by many persons not connected with newspapers, "Who will take Laffan's place?"

Charles A. Dana was one of the most highly cultivated Americans of any era in our history. He was one of the old Concord coterie of philosophers that included Emerson, Emerson and many of the leading intellects of a couple of generations ago. He was the editor of the first edition of Appleton's American Cyclopaedia and was considered at the time the best-fitted man in the country to supervise the publication of that great work.

Dana, through his vast and varied learning, made the New York Sun the most brilliant newspaper publication in the world. It had a flavor all its own and although it might sometimes disagree with one's mental or spiritual digestion, it was always exceedingly pleasing to the intellectual palate of the highly-educated and highly-cultivated reader. When such a man passed away the world marveled who would take his place.

The man was right at hand. In a way William Laffan was a second Charles A. Dana. Dana was a New Englander, Laffan was a born and bred Irishman; he was a graduate of Dublin University, and no man ever worthily received a degree from that institution who was not a scholar. Not only he was a profoundly learned man, but he had the Irish wit and humor of the most approved flavor. He was keen as a Damascus blade and trenchant as a knight of old in wielding his weapon. At the same time, while he could dazzle one with the splendor of his wit, he could in the next moment bring tears with the mellow, sympathetic humor with which he treated a subject that enlisted his sympathies.

Just as in the case of Dana, there were very few fields of human intelligence in which Mr. Laffan had not made frequent and long excursions. His fields of literature, art, politics, statesmanship, religion, ethics, all commanded his attention. His sympathies were world-wide. He could treat of something in connection with the Chinese empire, with the development of Japan, as easily as he could take up something of interest in the British empire or even in the United States.

At the early age of 62 he passes away, after spending nearly forty years of his life in America. Away back in 1870 he was employed on the San Francisco Bulletin, then owned by the late George velopement of forty years ago was short. He soon found his way to centers of larger influence and greater emolument, and, as is well known, he succeeded Dana in the management of the Sun, when that the great founder of that brilliant journal passed on.

The Sun never was meant for popular consumption. It is said that at the present time Pierpont Morgan and his associates practically control the paper. It has been the financial oracle of New York people for a great many years and is esteemed by cultivated readers everywhere. The Sun was never very devoted to any political party. In the early days of Grant's career in politics Dana was a Republican and his paper supported that party. It turned against Grant, and therefore abandoned the Republican party and became an ally of the Democracy. It supported Cleveland in 1884, opposed his reelection in 1888, and then championed his cause in 1892. After the defeat of Cleveland by Gen. Harrison in 1888 the Sun openly announced that its opposition to the reelection of Mr. Cleveland had cost it 80,000 subscribers, and added the remark that it would follow the same course again at the risk of losing twice as many. When its contemporaries twitted the Sun in 1892 for taking Cleveland's side in that campaign, and abandoning Harrison, the Sun said, with a decided Laffanese flavor: "The Sun does not have to rise today to tell the world its opinion of Grover Cleveland; but the devil rather than Ben Harrison."

THE EFFECTIVE "BIG STICK."

The pendulum swings. At one moment it touches the highest point to the right, the next moment that to the left. It never rests at the perpendicular if the clock is alive. Quite recently the "big-stick" idea touched a very high point on one side and then rapidly fell away until it touched the other side. Just now it seems to be about at the normal level.

The world gets tired of the "big stick" and of the man who is always swinging it. But the world must have its "big sticks" and men with brawn and courage enough to use them. The policeman always carries his big stick, but it is not all the time in motion. If the policeman never uses his club he is not a good peace officer in an ordinary American city. He must use it occasionally to do his duty. Just now we have an excellent example of the usefulness of the "big stick." Mr. William Loebe, Jr., collector of the port of New York, is showing himself an expert with it. "Big-stick" swinging went wild of the mark so far as New York was concerned when it was most in evidence. Mr. Loebe has brought it to bear on the exact spot where its usefulness will be greatest.

The cheating of the government through the sugar trust is not a thing of a day or a month or a year. Mr. Loebe has brought to light the fact that the government has been robbed for many years through the duly-appointed officers of the customhouse at New York City. He has brought the "big stick" with vengeance upon the heads of the dishonest government employees and also brought the big boot into play, kicking them out of office by half-scores. Mr. Loebe will have the plaudits of all honest American citizens, who must say, "More power to your elbow, William Loebe, Jr." He has also brought the "big stick" to play with admirable effect upon the thieving heads of the great sugar trust.

May he keep up his good work and recover from these pirates every dollar of revenue out of which they have cheated the United States government!

HEALING OLD WOUNDS.

Recent dispatches from Great Britain state that the Irish National party has invaded England itself as a part of the campaign to secure home rule for Ireland. And it is further stated that the common people of England have met the Irish more than half way, showing a deep sympathy for the cause and giving the Irish very emphatic encouragement.

Certainly there is cause for rejoicing in this. The quarrel between England and Ireland has lasted a thousand years. It has been the most bitter of quarrels, too. It has crossed the Atlantic and every ocean, following the English and the Irish into the strange lands to which they have emigrated. It has been the cause of innumerable hand-to-hand encounters in taverns and on the streets of cities wherever the two nationalities came into contact.

But it is well known that the Irish are generous of heart and that the Englishman is the soul of fair play. With the blindness of unreasonable prejudice removed from their eyes, there is no reason that these two peoples should not be the best of friends. The quarrel that has made them enemies is now an old man's quarrel; its bitterness can be buried and forgotten. The world is advancing toward the realization of the dream of the brotherhood of man. If the English and the Irish clasp hands in friendship the dream cannot much longer fail to blossom into fruition.

Fallacy of the Primary.
The Washington Post (probably plutocracy and bosses in the party nominations), takes the new.
The crane for the primary, has no evidence of abatement. It is fundamental fallacy that the

FOR WINTER GOWNS
No matter how delicate the shade of the gown you're planning, we can exactly match it in these linings—of that we are confident. And in the more staple shades, as well, assortments are unequalled:

Guaranteed satin linings—Padua and herringbone weaves, guaranteed for two seasons' wear; 36 inches wide... $1.00

Twisted satin linings; all silk, soft finish, 36-inch... $1.50

All silk linings; satin faced, chamois finish; 36-inch... $1.50

Skinner's satin linings; a full assortment; 36-inch... $1.50

Cashmere silks, peau de soie, soie diagonal, satin Duchesse and silk serge black linings, 36 inches wide... $2 & $2.25

Jet Trimmings
The Rage Now

This sparkling jet has the richness and distinction which glitter always brings, and besides, has the pleasant quality of realness, for jet imitates nothing:

Seemingly no end to the lovely trimmings in this flashing black, shown at the Trimming Section, only a few steps inside the Broadway door—allogers, garnitures, wide bands, tassels, pendants, balls, cords and fringes, spangled flouncing, spangled panels and fancy narrow edges. Get the jet enthusiasm; no trim ming is more popular.

Unusual Values in Linens
Such bargains as these in fine linens are rare, because it is their season. Thanksgiving it but a thought away, and in a month thereafter comes Christmas:

Nearly all of the following linens are made by the famous house of John S. Brown & Sons, Belfast, Ireland.

70-inch damask, specially priced at... 65c
72-inch damask, specially priced at... 95c
72-inch damask, specially priced at... $1.45

Many embroidered linens are proportionately low priced, also.

Careful Custom Tailoring
Doing very careful work, being very painstaking about fitting, having very skilled cutters, having exactly the right fabrics—all these features added to the other one—our risk as to fit—are making this a well-liked tailoring service among women who know and who are particular as to dress:

Choose from mannish suitings, broadcloths, Venetians, chevrons, serges, chevrons, diagonals—tell us what length of coat you prefer and what style of skirt; we'll make you a complete suit $40.00

From real French chiffon broadcloth, spot proof, any color, we will make suits complete, lining the coats with Skinner's satin or all silk lining. $50.00

And from one of the newest materials shown this fall—wool crash with nubs, which retails at $2.25 a yd., we will make suits complete only $45.00

Silks in Particular Popularity

To a woman, silks are irresistible; their soft, gracious beauty appeals to her innate love of luxuriousness and charming color. Here are the suitings that will be prominently in the foreground during the coming months:

(BLACK AND COLORS)
DIAGONAL silk suitings; 27 inches wide... $1.50
MOTORA silk suitings, 27 inches wide... $2.00

Silk Petticoats Only $3.00
Think of being able to buy, ready to put on, a silk petticoat for only three dollars!

And not a cheap, "shoddy" petticoat, either, made from poor silk, but a firm, carefully cut skirt, that will give satisfactory wear for an indefinite time. Here in Copenhagen blue, hunter's and light green, old rose, Catawba, red, London smoke and brown, at... $3.00

Girls' University and Trotteur Dresses
Special $12.50
Girlish figures seem particularly well adapted to prevailing styles of one-piece frocks; the long, graceful lines of the University and Trotteur dresses are becoming to nearly every young woman.

We've an attractive array of these two styles, in fine serges, panamas, humespuns and hopsacking; the skirts pleated; in tans, navy blue, taupe, light gray and like pretty winter shades; sizes to fit girls of 12 to 17 years, at... $12.50

Warm Goods for Winter Garments

Quite the fad, nowadays, to give unmade presents; and whether you expect to give somebody the cloth for a dressing gown or house dress, or to make it up, it's high time you were purchasing. And if completeness of assortments means anything to you, we are certain you'll buy here:

DOUBLE-FACE EIDERDOWNS—Light on one side, dark on the other; the figures reproduced on both sides; warm shades of red and gray and tan, which make up beautifully into men's house coats, women's dressing sacques and lounging robes... 35c

OUTING FLANNELS—Pretty patterns in these outing flannels, suitable for practical garments, such as night gowns, pajamas, etc., and, in some designs, for waists; priced, according to quality, at... 8 1/2c to 12c

FLANNELETTES—Make delightfully warm and pretty dressing gowns; shown in Persian stripes and colors, at... 10c to 25c

Ostermoor Mattresses---
The Best
In these days of comfort-seeking, when most of us are so ultra-particular, it seems surprising that anybody should put up with bedding that isn't of the very highest quality.

For example—why should anybody buy any other mattress than the Ostermoor, (for which we are sole Los Angeles agents) either for general use or for the dainty guest-chamber? For there's an Ostermoor handsome enough in its exterior covering to grace the finest bed, and there's one inexpensive enough to suit the thriftest purse—yet the interior of every Ostermoor is the same; made of sheets of pure, carefully carded cotton, which remain fluffy and light and wholly sanitary during a lifetime of use.

Every Ostermoor Mattress is fully warranted not to mat, pack or become "lumpy." An occasional sunbath keeps it fresh, and if you ever care to wash the ticking, simply scrub it with soap and water—you can't hurt the cotton filling, for the ticking is impervious to water.

Let us show you the different styles and sizes—sorts for babies' cribs and children's beds, as well as the regular styles. We carry all sizes in stock.

Dainty Fur Sets for Children

No matter who else receives a remembrance from Santa Claus, the children always come first. And a gift of furs cannot fail to appeal to any youngster. Here are just a few suggestions:

Set of white Thibet fur—two pieces—the muff having a big white bow, and a white purse top; set... $3.50

Set of imitation chinchilla fur; a purse in the muff; set... $3.00

Set of imitation ermine collar and muff with purse top. A very pretty imitation set... $1.85

Set of white lamb; muff and collar, finished with three heads; set... $1.75

Dainty Art Linens

The weakness which every good housewife has for pretty decorative linens may be gratified at little or great expense, in this wide assortment of artistic pieces:

In the higher-priced linens, we've handsome Cluny, Battenberg, French and Italian Florentine patterns, in every size, from the little 6-inch doilies up to magnificent 90-inch cloths; simple or elaborate patterns, as you prefer. And we can match up complete sets, if you care to have us. Less expensive, and very pretty pieces are shown in Japanese drawnwork linens, of which we have a wide variety.

The Rengo Belt — A New Corset
This corset has a very pronounced individuality, which has attracted favorable comment from every woman who has ever worn it:

Into the body of the corset is tailored a reinforcing belt, which produces an even, sloping waist and reduces the hips gracefully and naturally—giving long, flowing lines from bust to thigh.

The rustless, double watchspring boning, which is an exclusive feature of the Rengo Belt Corset, insures an erect, lithe carriage without uncomfortable stiffness.

Expert corsetiers will fit any of the Rengo Belt models to your figure without extra charge.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

NEWS has been received from Los Angeles, Ariz., of the marriage of Miss May Scott, formerly of this city, to Will Woodworth Chadwick. The marriage was solemnized at the country place of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Scott, on the evening of the 13th inst. and was witnessed by the immediate relatives only. The Rev. Dr. Ault of Winslow, Ariz., read the service.

The bride wore an elaborate gown of white chiffon over ivory satin and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Her only ornament was a pendant of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom.

Miss Maud Scott, the bride's sister, was her only attendant. She was attired in delicate rose-colored pompadour silk messaline. Charles Chadwick of New Mexico stood with his brother. The young people will be at home at No. 221 South Third street, Albuquerque, N. M., where they will receive friends after December 15.

Informal Luncheon.

diates friends only. Miss Pansy Newlin had charge of the wedding music and the bride wore a tailored suit of dark-red broadcloth. At the conclusion of a brief trip, Mr. and Mrs. Jones will receive their friends at No. 1429 Laurel avenue, Hollywood.

Left Yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McConnell of No. 1022 West Thirty-fifth place left yesterday for an extended trip abroad. They intend visiting in the eastern States until after the holidays, after which they will sail for Europe. They will spend the summer touring England and the continent.

Many social functions have been given in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Tilden of No. 1146 West Thirty-fifth place entertained Hollywood citizens Friday evening. After dinner the members of the Finch Club, to which they belong, presented them with a beautiful rug, together with their good wishes for a safe and pleasant journey.

Miss McConnell has returned from San Francisco and will remain at home, chaperoned by Mrs. Isabel Harvey, during the absence of her parents.

WILL INSPIRE DISMAY IN HEARTS OF ALL SPEEDERS.

THE FIRST step in a general system of policing all the highways of Los Angeles county was taken yesterday when the Board of Supervisors ordered the appointment of two motorcycle officers to patrol Huntington Drive from the Los Angeles to the Pasadena limits.

Country Constable Holding Up Auto Party. This is not the way the new motorcycle deputy sheriffs will turn the trick on Huntingdon Drive.

Reports of reckless driving in that vicinity, especially at the Bairdstown crossing, caused the determination on the part of the Board of Supervisors for the enforcement of the State law relative to the speed limit on county highways.

A number of men have been killed at Bairdstown because of reckless driving, but the speed maniac will now be compelled to go slow or else visit the County Jail.

Two men were ordered appointed and their salaries fixed at $100 a month each. Sheriff Hammel was also instructed to obtain the best motorcycles possible for use in that district.

The Sheriff announced his appointments yesterday afternoon, selecting two men to carry out the duty. One is a local man, and the other is a former constable who lives at Bairdstown.

"I have picked these men because they are competent and because they are right on the spot and can work at all hours of the day or night. They will have their own hours. All I require is that they police that road and police it so well that there are no further complaints of speed violations."

BOARD OF EDUCATION.
On Record to "Play Fair" With Hollywood School District, in Case of Annexation to Los Angeles.

In response to a request from a committee of Hollywood citizens, as to what attitude the Board of Education would take, in case that suburb should be annexed to the city, the following resolution was passed at a meeting of the board last night:

"Resolved, That in case the proposed consolidation of Hollywood city with Los Angeles city should be effected, it will be the policy of the Board of Education of the Los Angeles city school district to carry out all contracts let by the Hollywood Union High School district or grammar school trustees, in case of the annexation of Hollywood city or Hollywood Union High School district, and, in case contracts are not let, to carry out the plans of the Hollywood grammar school trustees and the Hollywood Union High School trustees in so far as such plans may be matured at the time of consolidation, just as far as practical."

The board authorized the purchase of a school lot in the Arlington Heights tract, and gave directions to have the architect prepare plans for a building to be erected on the lot.

A request was made to the Chamber of Commerce to appoint a committee to prepare material for a study on the study on California, Southern California and Los Angeles, to become part of the teaching in geography.

With the ultimate purpose of transforming the Macy street school into a trade school, the building of a carpenter shop on the grounds of that school was authorized last night.

The resignations of Lillian Nims and Hazel A. Dunlap, as teachers in the grammar schools, were accepted, and leave of absence was granted to Alice Claypool, Neven Whitehead and Elizabeth N. Dwyer, who are on leave.

Spiers and Beulah R. Hunter were elected substitute teachers, and the following assignments and transfers were made: Lillian J. Tilden, to Hoover street; Leah Lawrence, to Hewitt street; Juanita L. Davis, to Hewitt street; Paul W. Hopkins, to McKinley home; Irene Dorfmeier, to Twenty-eighth street; Laura M. Hussey, to Castelar street; Carolyn Culver, to Washington street; L. L. Galt, to Fourteenth street; Persia Wimberly, to Vermont avenue; Lottie M. Young, to Vermont avenue.

JAPANESE IMPRESSED.
Steamer Line Between Our Port and Japan May Result from Visit of Commissioners.

The honorary Japanese Commercial Commissioners will pass through Los Angeles early this morning en route to Riverside and Redlands. Yesterday was passed in San Diego. After three hours in Riverside and the same time in Redlands, the special will go to San Bernardino, where a show stop will be made. This afternoon the travelers will depart for the Grand Canyon. Wednesday afternoon they start for San Francisco and Oakland. Their steamer sails for home, the 9th inst.

The visit of the distinguished Japanese commissioners was a noteworthy one, said Frank Wiggins, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday. "Several of the party expressed a hearty appreciation of the entertainment extended by me and I know all went away much pleased with Los Angeles hospitality. It is reasonable to expect that the visit will bear fruit, for several of the commissioners are connected with the cotton trade and others are heavy importers of cotton. It will not be long before a steamer line is established between our port and Japan."

ICE CASES COME BACK.
Supreme Court Denies Restraining Order to Prevent Justice Ross from Trying Them.

The refusal of the Supreme Court to grant a hearing in the case of local ice companies against Police Justice Ross operates to bring the criminal actions before the Police Court for trial. Dist. Atty. Fredericks first instituted a series of cases against the Union Ice Company and other similar concerns, upon the alleged grounds that the Los Angeles ice companies had combined to raise prices.

The complaints were drawn under the Catwright law, and were filed in Police Justice Ross's court. He sustained a demurrer to the complaints. The Superior Court reversed his decision and returned the cases for trial. The defendants then asked the Second District Court of Appeal for a writ of prohibition to restrain the police magistrate from trying the cases. The writ was denied. The defendants then appealed to the Supreme Court. The latter tribunal upheld the decision of the Appellate Court, in an order received by Deputy Clerk R. L. Dunlap here yesterday.

She Can Eat It Up Now.
A lady recently visited a friend in Keene, N. H., whose husband was very delicate, and yet she noticed that he could eat all the pie he wanted. She began to wonder how it was that he could do it, when she had to give up this delicacy because of disagreeable after effects. She writes as follows:

"I found it was because the pies were made with Cottolene, and as I am a great lover of pie, I began using Cottolene. I have never had a bit of indigestion since that time. I now enjoy my pie, and I do not give heart-burn as formerly."

Cottolene makes crisp, flaky, "digestible" pie-crust, that tastes good, and does good—hard does you harm.

the first offense, stiff fines for the second and jail sentences for the third. I will instruct these men, who will be regularly appointed Deputy Sheriffs to use discretion in making arrests. The State law provides that a speed of not more than twenty miles be attained on county highways. If the drivers go a mile or two over that speed they may not be arrested. We may let them have the extra mile, so as to be sure that they have not unintentionally violated the law. But after that extra mile they will be taken up and tried either in Los Angeles or Pasadena. We will use discretion as to taking the drivers direct to jail or permitting them to go on their honor after getting their numbers.

"A deputy sheriff has paramount right as a peace officer and if a driver violates the law in the county he will be pursued no matter if the officer has to chase him into his garage either in Los Angeles or Pasadena."

As soon as the system of boulevards in Los Angeles county is completed, motorcycle deputy sheriffs will be stationed along all thoroughfares to check the speed of the cars.

Yesterday hundreds of speed warnings were posted along the Huntingdon Drive. These signs notify drivers that if they exceed a speed of twenty miles an hour.

ELIMINATION IN ARMY.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Organization of army officers to a radical degree was recommended to the War Department today by Gen. Leonard Wood, in command of the Department of the East.

He wants an elimination law enacted so that officers above the grade of captain will attain grades at least ten years younger than at present.

"Our present system," said Gen. Wood, "results generally in the best years of a man's life being spent in a subordinate position."

He recommended the reestablishment of the army canteen.

A Startling Statement

New York Medical Authorities Claim Dyspepsia to be a Pre-Disposing Cause of Consumption.

The post mortem statistics of the big New York hospitals show that some cases of consumption are due, at least indirectly, to unchecked dyspepsia, especially when the victim was predisposed to tuberculosis.

Dyspepsia wears out the body and brain. The weakened, irritable stomach being unable to digest food, the body does not receive the required nourishment, and the victim becomes thin, weak and haggard. As a result, the body becomes a fertile field in which the germs of disease may lodge and flourish.

Therefore, the person who permits dyspepsia to progress unhindered is guilty of contributing toward the development of one of the most insidious and fatal diseases known to mankind.

Dyspepsia may be completely eradicated if properly treated. We sell a remedy that we positively guarantee will completely relieve indigestion or dyspepsia, or the medicine used during the trial will cost the user nothing.

This remedy has been named REXALL Dyspepsia Tablets. Certainly no other could be more fair, and our offer could be more positive than REXALL Dyspepsia Tablets are a dependable remedy.

Inasmuch as the medicine will cost you nothing if it does not benefit you, we urge you who are suffering with indigestion or dyspepsia to try REXALL Dyspepsia Tablets. A 25c box contains enough medicine for fifteen days' treatment. For chronic cases we have two larger sizes, 50c and $1. Remember you can obtain REXALL Remedies in Los Angeles only at our stores—The Retail Stores, The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Cal., and Seattle, Wash.

The bride had planned a trip to Europe in company with friends, but at the last minute, the young couple decided to enjoy the world's tour together. They will spend this winter in Japan and will later visit other countries.

Formal Announcement.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ervin of No. 240 West Fifty-second street formally announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ida Mae, to Fred B. Espe, Jr., which was solemnized on the 15th inst. at the family home. Miss Edith of the Episcopal Lutheran Church officiated. Miss Ada Espe, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and Morton Newman, cousin of the bride, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Espe are spending their honeymoon at Coronado, and will later make their home at Artesia.

For Miss Davenport.
A tea party was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Robert W. Poindexter and her daughter, Miss Rommie Poindexter, at their home on West Adams street, in compliment to Miss Edith Davenport of New York, who is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Fowler Shankland. The hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Edith Davenport, Mrs. Richard D. Brown, Mrs. Walter Perry Story, Mrs. Carl Curtz and Mrs. W. W. Mines. Mrs. Whitmore will entertain with a similar affair next Monday.

Mrs. Whitmore Receives.
Mrs. Samuel Jackson Whitmore of Hotel Alexandria entertained with an informal at home yesterday. Large yellow chrysanthemums appeared in the reception-room and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Edith Davenport, Mrs. William Irving Haldingworth, Mrs. James T. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Richard D. Brown, Mrs. Walter Perry Story, Mrs. Carl Curtz and Mrs. W. W. Mines. Mrs. Whitmore will entertain with a similar affair next Monday.

Jones-Anderson Nuptials.
Miss Maude Anderson and Le Roy Jones were married yesterday at noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Anderson of South Burlington avenue. Rev. T. C. Knowles performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and im-

Rheumatism is in reality an internal inflammation; a diseased condition of the blood in which supply the nourishment and strength necessary to sustain our bodies. The disease is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, which comes from indigestion, weak kidneys, constipation, and other irregularities of the system. This uric acid produces an inflamed and acid condition of the blood, and the circulation, instead of nourishing the different portions of the body, actually deposits into the muscles, tendons, ligaments and joints, a burning and stinging acid with which the system is filled. Then follow the painful and torturing symptoms of Rheumatism. We do not claim for S. S. S. that it is anything more than a first class blood purifier, and that is just what is needed to cure Rheumatism. S. S. S. goes into the circulation, and by neutralizing the uric acid and driving it from the blood, effectually and surely removes the cause of Rheumatism. S. S. S. cleanses and invigorates the system, and instead of a weak, soured, and inflamed system, produces a healthy, vigorous, and active system, causing no pain and agony throughout the system. It is a powerful, invigorating, nourishing fluid, furnishing health and vigor to every portion of the body, and permanently relieving the suffering caused by Rheumatism. S. S. S. is purely vegetable and will not injure the most delicate system.

Boston Banker Spent Eight Years

Carlton H. Hutchinson, a leading banker and broker of Boston, who has recently come out with a very strong statement.

In the widespread discussion over Cooper's new theory and medicine, which has spread over the country so rapidly, Mr. Hutchinson has taken the side of those who say that Cooper's theory is correct and his medicine all that is needed.

Mr. Hutchinson's emphatic statement is as follows: "Anyone afflicted with chronic ill health and a general run-down condition caused by stomach trouble, who does not try this man Cooper's medicine is very foolish. I say this after a most remarkable experience with the medicine."

"I heard of Cooper's success first when he was in Chicago, as I have a private wire to that city in connection with my business. Later, when he came East, I learned more of him and his theory that stomach trouble causes most ill health. I have had no faith in anything not prescribed by a physician for each particular case after diagnosis, but after eight years of constant suffering during which time I have been absolutely unable to do any work, I have now been cured by Cooper's medicine."

"I have written to many of my friends and acquaintances about Cooper's medicine, and I have seen the results of its use in many cases. I have seen the cure of stomach trouble, indigestion, constipation, and all the other ailments which result from a run-down condition. I have seen the cure of chronic ill health and a general run-down condition. I have seen the cure of all the ailments which result from a run-down condition."
